Class A Notes

CUSIP Number: 78445VAA8

Record Date: The record date for distribution of this Notice and request for consent to the Noteholders is May 10, 2021.

Expiration Date: The solicitation of consents will cease on the sooner of (i) June 9, 2021 at noon (New York City time) or (ii) the date on which the Administrator receives the consent of Noteholders representing 100% of the Outstanding Amount of the Class A Notes and Class B Notes, unless otherwise extended for up to two additional fourteen-day periods by the Administrator. NOTE: EXECUTED AND DELIVERED CONSENTS ARE IRREVOCABLE PRIOR TO THE EXPIRATION OF THE CONSENT PERIOD.

In order to assure timely closing of the Supplemental Indenture, delivery of consents should be made sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Date to assure that the consents are received prior to the Expiration Date. The method of delivery of the consent to the Indenture Trustee is at the election and sole risk of the Noteholder. Closing of the Supplemental Indenture may occur after the Expiration Date if the requisite consents have been received and have not been revoked.

None of the Issuer, the Administrator, the Eligible Lender Trustee or the Indenture Trustee makes any recommendation as to whether or not Noteholders should provide consents to the proposed Supplemental Indenture.

Neither the Eligible Lender Trustee nor the Indenture Trustee assumes any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this Notice or any failure by the Issuer or the Administrator to disclose events that may have occurred and may affect the significance or accuracy of such information.

EXHIBIT A

Consent

Each of the undersigned parties hereby consents, as of June [[●]], 2021, to the SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE NO. 2 (the “Supplemental Indenture”) to the INDENTURE, dated as of June 14, 2012, as amended from time to time (the “Indenture”), by and between SLM Student Loan Trust 2012-4, as issuer (the “Issuer”), Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, as indenture trustee (the “Indenture Trustee”), and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as eligible lender trustee (the “Eligible Lender Trustee”), in substantially the form attached hereto as Annex A.

The Indenture is being amended to amend certain of the terms and definitions contained therein.

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in Appendix A to the Indenture, which also contains rules as to usage that shall be applicable herein.

Ratings Considerations. Each of the undersigned parties understands that no assurance can be provided regarding the impact that the adoption of the Supplemental Indenture will have on the ratings of the Notes. As required by the Indenture, the Issuer has provided prior written notice of the terms of the Supplemental Indenture to each Rating Agency currently rating the Notes. However, no Rating Agency confirmation or affirmation of the ratings of the Notes has been sought or given. As a result, it is not certain what impact the adoption of the Supplemental Indenture will have on a Rating Agency’s decision to add the Notes to or remove the Notes from its negative watch list for possible downgrade or to downgrade the current ratings of the Notes.

Further, we have been advised that it is possible that a Rating Agency may view the adoption of this Supplemental Indenture as a restructuring of a distressed debt instrument. One potential result of this designation would be to cause a ratings downgrade of the Notes (to reflect the distressed debt element of their analysis) followed by an upgrade of the rating of the Notes (to address the restructuring of the Notes).

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences. Each of the undersigned parties understands that the adoption of the Supplemental Indenture may have adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences to the Noteholders, and the undersigned parties will rely on advice from their own tax advisors on this matter. The discussion below is general in nature and does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the adoption of the Supplemental Indenture that may be relevant to Noteholders.

Possible Deemed Exchange Upon Adoption of Supplemental Indenture or Upon Actual Benchmark Replacement. Each of the undersigned parties understands that the consequences of adopting the Supplemental Indenture to provide for an alternative method or index in place of LIBOR for Notes that have an interest rate that currently adjusts based on LIBOR are uncertain. By consenting to the proposed Supplemental Indenture, each of the undersigned is hereby deemed to have received the required notice under Section 2.11 of the Administration Agreement and Section 2.13(d) of the Indenture, as amended by the Supplemental Indenture, of the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event on March 5, 2021, when the ICE Benchmark Administration Limited announced its intention to cease publication of One-Month LIBOR, among other benchmark rates, after Friday, June 30, 2023. The adoption of such amendment or, alternatively, the actual replacement of LIBOR with SOFR or another benchmark may constitute a “significant modification” of the Notes under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1001-3. In such case, the adoption of the amendment or, alternately, such actual replacement of LIBOR with SOFR or another benchmark may result in a deemed exchange of such Notes.

If the adoption of the Supplemental Indenture or the actual replacement of the benchmark rate results in such a significant modification and therefore a deemed exchange of the existing Class A Notes (the “Old Class A Notes”), and the existing Class B Notes (the “Old Class B Notes” and with the Old Class A Notes, the “Old Notes”) for new Class A Notes (the “New Class A Notes”), and new Class B Notes (the “New Class B Notes” and, together with the New Class A Notes, the “New Notes”), Noteholders that are “United States persons” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code will recognize gain or loss upon such deemed exchange unless the exchange qualifies as a tax-free recapitalization. Although the matter is not free from doubt, provided that the equity of the trust continues to be owned by a single corporate owner at the time of such deemed exchange, we intend to treat any such deemed exchange as such a recapitalization. If the deemed exchange is a tax-free recapitalization, a Noteholder’s tax basis in the New Notes received pursuant to the deemed exchange generally will equal the Noteholder’s tax basis in the Old Notes.

If the Supplemental Indenture results in a significant modification, the issue price of the New Notes will depend on whether the New Notes and the Old Notes are properly characterized as “traded on an established market” (hereinafter “publicly-traded”) within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1273-2(f)(1). If the Old Notes and the New Notes are publicly-traded, the issue price of the New Notes would be the fair market value of the New Notes on the date of the deemed exchange (i.e., on the date the Supplemental Indenture becomes effective). If neither the Old Notes nor the New Notes are publicly-traded, the issue price of the New Notes would be the stated principal balance of the New Notes on the date of the deemed exchange (i.e., on the date the Supplemental Indenture becomes effective), provided that the New Notes bear “adequate stated interest.” A debt instrument is considered to bear adequate stated interest if the stated principal amount of the instrument is less than or equal to its imputed principal amount (generally, the sum of the present values of each payment due under the instrument, determined by using a discount rate equal to the applicable federal rate rate). If the New Notes do not bear adequate stated interest, the issue price of the New Notes will generally be their imputed principal amount calculated as described above. We expect that (i) the Old Class A Notes and the New Class A Notes should be characterized as being publicly-traded and (ii) the Old Class B Notes and the New Class B Notes should not be characterized as being publicly-traded. Consequently, the issue price of (i) the New Class A Notes should be the fair market value of the New Class A Notes on the date the Supplemental Indenture becomes effective and (ii) provided that the New Class B Notes are treated as being issued with “adequate stated interest,” the New Class B Notes should be the stated principal balance of the New Class B Notes on the date the Supplemental Indenture becomes effective.

A New Note received in the deemed exchange (if any) will be treated as having been issued with original issue discount (“OID”) for U.S. federal income tax purposes if the New Note’s “stated principal amount” exceeds the issue price of the New Notes by more than a statutorily defined de minimis amount. For a further discussion of the treatment of OID, see “U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences—Tax Consequences to Holders of Notes in General—Original Issue Discount” in the Base Prospectus dated June 6, 2012 (the “Base Prospectus”).

If the deemed exchange qualifies as a recapitalization and a Noteholder's initial tax basis in the New Notes exceeds the stated principal amount of such New Notes, the Noteholder will be considered to have acquired the New Notes with amortizable bond premium. In addition, for any Noteholder that acquired Old Notes with market discount, any gain recognized on the deemed exchange will be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount accrued during its period of ownership, unless such Noteholder previously elected to include market discount in income as it accrued for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Assuming the deemed exchange qualifies as a recapitalization, in a deemed exchange of Old Notes with market discount for New Notes, the New Notes will be treated as acquired with market discount if the issue price of the New Notes exceeds the holder's initial tax basis for such New Notes by more than a de minimis amount, and any accrued market discount with respect to the Old Notes generally should carry over to such New Notes. For a further discussion of amortizable bond premium and market discount, see "U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences—Tax Consequences to Holders of Notes in General—Market Discount" in the Base Prospectus.

The Internal Revenue Service and the United States Treasury have proposed regulations, that, in certain circumstances, could reduce the likelihood that replacing a rate based on LIBOR with an alternative method or index would constitute a "significant modification" as described above. However, it is unclear whether such regulations would apply to the adoption of an amendment to provide for such a replacement. Accordingly, we can provide no assurance that these regulations, in their current form, will provide any relief from the tax consequences described above with respect to either the adoption of the Supplemental Indenture or if a replacement is actually effected with respect to the loans and the Notes. Moreover, the Internal Revenue Service recently published Revenue Procedure 2020-44, which set forth certain safe harbors pursuant to which the adoption of an amendment related to replacing a rate based on LIBOR with an alternative method or index would not constitute a "significant modification." It is not expected that the Supplemental Indenture would qualify for any of these safe harbors. Noteholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the consequences of the adoption of this Supplemental Indenture and the actual designation of an alternative method or index in place of LIBOR.

Each party hereto agrees that this document may be electronically signed, and that any electronic signatures appearing on this document are the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of validity, enforceability, and admissibility.

Noteholders are urged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the adoption of the Supplemental Indenture.

NOTEHOLDERS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT EXECUTED AND DELIVERED CONSENTS ARE IRREVOCABLE PRIOR TO THE EXPIRATION OF THE CONSENT PERIOD (INCLUDING ANY ONE-TIME EXTENSION THEREOF MADE AT THE SOLE DISCRETION OF THE ADMINISTRATOR).

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, the Issuer, the Indenture Trustee, and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as eligible lender trustee (the “Eligible Lender Trustee”), previously entered into that certain Indenture, dated as of June 14, 2012, as amended by the Supplemental Indenture No. 1, dated as of February 16, 2016 (the “Supplemental Indenture No. 1”), and as may be further amended from time to time (the “Indenture”);

WHEREAS, the Opinions of Counsel referred to in Sections 9.3 and 11.1 of the Indenture and the Officer's Certificate required under Section 11.1 of the Indenture are being delivered simultaneously herewith.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Defined Terms.

For purposes of this Supplemental Indenture, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, all capitalized terms which are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in Appendix A to the Indenture, as hereby amended.

SECTION 2. Amendments and Modifications to the Indenture.

(a) Article 2 of the Indenture is hereby amended by adding the following new Section 2.13 immediately following Section 2.12 thereof:

2.13 Effect of Benchmark Transition Event.

(a) Benchmark Replacement. If the Administrator determines that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred prior to the Reference Time in respect of any determination of the then-current Benchmark on any date, the Benchmark Replacement as determined by the Administrator will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Notes and the Basic Documents in respect of such determination on such date and all determinations on all subsequent dates; provided, however, if the initial Benchmark Replacement is any rate other than Term SOFR and the Administrator later determines that Term SOFR can be determined, then the Administrator shall designate (with notice to the Indenture Trustee, the Rating Agencies, the Noteholders and the Excess Distribution Certificate Paying Agent) Term SOFR as the new Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement and shall, together with a new Benchmark Replacement Adjustment for Term SOFR, replace the then-current Benchmark on the next Benchmark determination date for Term SOFR, provided that prior notice has been sent by the Administrator to the Rating Agencies and provided further, however, that an alternative rate has not been adopted by the enactment of a LIBOR Related Amendment. For the avoidance of doubt, a Benchmark Transition Event has occurred as of March 5, 2021, with respect to One-Month LIBOR.

(b) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Administrator shall have the right, from time to time, to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes.

(c) Decisions and Determinations. Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Administrator in connection with a Benchmark Transition Event or a Benchmark Replacement pursuant to this Section 2.13, including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection, shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error, may be made in the Administrator's sole discretion, and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Basic Documents, shall become effective without consent from any other party or Noteholder and shall not be subject to any of the amendment provisions of the Basic Documents (including, without limitation, the provisions under Article IX); provided, for the avoidance of doubt, any LIBOR Related Amendment shall be subject to the amendment provisions of the Indenture (including, without limitation, the provision under Article IX); provided further, that none of the Indenture Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Delaware Trustee or the Eligible Lender Trustee shall have any obligation or liability to determine whether or what LIBOR Related Amendments are necessary or advisable, if any, in connection with the foregoing. Notwithstanding anything in the Basic Documents to the contrary, upon the inclusion in a monthly distribution statement of the information set forth in clauses (ii) or (iii) of Section 2.13(d), the relevant Basic Documents shall be deemed to have been amended to reflect the new Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement, Benchmark Replacement Adjustment and/or Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes without further compliance with the amendment provisions of the relevant Basic Documents.

(d) Administrator Reports. Upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event, on each Determination Date thereafter preceding a Distribution Date, the Administrator, on behalf of the Issuer, shall include in the statement provided or made available to the Indenture Trustee and the Rating Agencies pursuant to Section 2.11 of the Administration Agreement (to the extent applicable) notice of the occurrence of (i) a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date, (ii) the determination of a Benchmark Replacement and (iii) the making of any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes.

(e) Calculation of Benchmark Replacement. Prior to each Determination Date, the Administrator, on behalf of the Issuer, shall determine the Note Rates that will be applicable to the Accrual Period following such Determination Date, in compliance with its obligation to prepare and deliver an Administrator's Certificate on such Determination Date pursuant to Section 3.1 of the Administration Agreement. In connection therewith and notwithstanding the provisions set forth in Section 3.1(d) of the Administration Agreement, following the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date, on each determination date of the then-current Benchmark during the related Accrual Period, the Administrator shall calculate the applicable Benchmark Replacement for such Accrual Period.

(f) Effect of Department of Education Selection of Alternative Index. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Department chooses to use an alternative index other than SOFR for Special Allowance Payments, the Administrator may direct the Issuer and the Indenture Trustee to enter into a LIBOR Related Amendment, which shall become effective upon meeting the conditions set forth in the definition thereof.

(g) No Liability for Selection of Replacement Index. Notwithstanding anything contained herein or in any other Basic Document to the contrary, none of the Issuer, the Eligible Lender Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the Indenture Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Administrator, the Depositor or the Servicer shall have any obligation (other than the obligations of the Administrator set forth in Section 3.1(d) of the Administration Agreement) or liability for any action or inaction taken or refrained from being taken by it with respect to any determination of LIBOR or any other Benchmark made by or on behalf of the Administrator or the selection of any Benchmark Transition Event or a Benchmark Replacement as set forth above or any other matters related to or arising in connection with the foregoing, and each Noteholder, by its acceptance of a Note or a beneficial interest in a Note, shall be deemed to waive and release any and all claims against the Issuer, the Eligible Lender Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the Indenture Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Administrator, the Depositor or the Servicer relating to any such determinations. Each of the Issuer, the Eligible Lender Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the Indenture Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Administrator, the Depositor and the Servicer may enter into a LIBOR Related Amendment upon receipt of written direction from or on behalf of the Administrator, and satisfaction of the other applicable requirements for amendments under this Indenture; provided, that, the Issuer, the Eligible Lender Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the Indenture Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Administrator, the Depositor and the Servicer shall have no liability whatsoever with respect to any determination by or on behalf of the Administrator to enter into a LIBOR Related Amendment or for the contents thereof.

(h) No Duty in Connection with LIBOR Benchmark Replacement. Neither the Indenture Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, Eligible Lender Trustee nor the Paying Agent (i) shall be under any obligation (A) to monitor, determine or verify the unavailability or cessation of LIBOR (or other applicable Benchmark), or whether or when there has occurred, or to give notice to any other transaction party of the occurrence of any Benchmark Transition Event or Benchmark Replacement Date, (B) to select, determine or designate any Benchmark Replacement, or other successor or replacement benchmark index, or whether any conditions to the designation of such a rate have been satisfied, or (C) to select, determine or designate any Benchmark Replacement Adjustment, or other modifier to any replacement or successor index, or (D) to determine whether or what Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes are necessary or advisable, if any, in connection with any of the foregoing and (ii) shall be liable for any inability, failure or delay on its part to perform any of its duties set forth in this Agreement as a result of the unavailability of LIBOR (or other applicable Benchmark) and absence of a designated replacement Benchmark, including as a result of any inability, delay, error or inaccuracy on the part of any other transaction party, including without limitation the Administrator, in providing any direction, instruction, notice or information required or contemplated by the terms of this Indenture and reasonably required for the performance of such duties.

(b) Section 9.2 of the Indenture is hereby amended by adding the following new paragraph to the beginning thereof:

The Issuer and the Indenture Trustee, when instructed in writing by the Administrator may enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental hereto in the form of a LIBOR Related Amendment subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 2.13 hereof, the definition of LIBOR Related Amendment and satisfaction of the other applicable requirements for amendments under this Indenture.

(c) Section 9.2 of the Indenture is hereby further amended by deleting reference to “:” contained therein and replacing it with the following new clause: “other than in connection with a LIBOR Related Amendment:”.

(d) Section 9.2 of the Indenture is hereby further amended by adding the following new paragraphs immediately prior to the last paragraph thereof:

For the avoidance of doubt, any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Administrator pursuant to Section 2.13 not requiring a LIBOR Related Amendment for its effectiveness shall not be considered a supplemental indenture and shall not be subject to the requirements of this Article IX.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, none of the Delaware Trustee, the Eligible Lender Trustee, the Paying Agent or the Indenture Trustee shall be bound to follow or agree to any amendment or supplement to this Indenture (including, without limitation, any LIBOR Related Amendment) that would increase or materially change or affect the duties, obligations or liabilities of the Delaware Trustee, the Eligible Lender Trustee, the Paying Agent or the Indenture Trustee (including without limitation the imposition or expansion of discretionary authority), or reduce, eliminate, limit or otherwise change any right, privilege or protection of the Delaware Trustee, the Eligible Lender Trustee, the Paying Agent or the Indenture Trustee, or that would otherwise materially and adversely affect the Delaware Trustee, the Eligible Lender Trustee, the Paying Agent or the Indenture, in each case in their reasonable judgment, without such party’s express written consent.

(e) Section 11.11(a) of the Indenture is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as set forth below:

(a) Nothing in this Indenture or in the Notes, express or implied shall give to any person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, the Noteholders, any other party secured hereunder, the Delaware Trustee and any other Person with an ownership interest in any part of the Indenture Trust Estate, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Indenture.
