SECTION 4: INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION

When completing this application, type or print using dark ink. Enter dates as month/day/year (mm/dd/yyyy). Use only numbers. Example: March 14, 2024 = 03/14/2024. If you need more space to answer any of the items, continue on separate sheets of paper and attach them to this application. Identify the item number for which you are providing additional information. Include your name and Social Security Number (SSN) at the top of page 2 and on any attached pages. Return the completed application and any documentation to the address shown in Section 7.

SECTION 5: DEFINITIONS

The William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program includes Federal Direct Stafford/Ford (Direct Subsidized) Loans, Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford/Ford (Direct Unsubsidized) Loans, Federal Direct PLUS (Direct PLUS) Loans, and Federal Direct Consolidation (Direct Consolidation) Loans.

The Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program includes Federal Stafford Loans (both subsidized and unsubsidized), Federal Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS), Federal PLUS Loans, and Federal Consolidation Loans.

The Federal Perkins Loan (Perkins Loan) Program includes Federal Perkins Loans, National Direct Student Loans (NDSL), and National Defense Student Loans (Defense Loans).

The date a school closed is the earlier of the date, determined by the Department, that the school ceased to provide educational instruction in programs in which most students at the school were enrolled, or a date, determined by the Department, that reflects when the school ceased to provide educational instruction for all of its students.

A leave of absence from school is considered to be an approved leave of absence only if it meets certain requirements specified in the Department's regulations. A student who is on an approved leave of absence is considered to still be enrolled at the school.

The holder of your Direct Loan Program loans is the Department. The holder of your FFEL Program loans may be a lender, a guaranty agency, or the Department. The holder of your Perkins Loans may be a school or the Department.

Your loan holder may use a servicer to handle billing and other communications related to your loans. References to "your loan holder" on this form mean either your loan holder or your servicer.

If your loan is discharged, this means that you (and any endorser) are not required to repay the remaining portion of the loan, and you will be reimbursed for any payments on the loan that you made voluntarily or through forced collection (for example, through wage garnishment or Treasury offset). For a consolidation loan, only the portion that represents the original loans you received that are eligible for discharge will be discharged. The loan holder reports the discharge to all consumer reporting agencies to which the holder previously reported the status of the loan and requests the removal of any adverse credit history previously associated with the loan.

The student refers to the borrower or, in the case of a parent PLUS loan, the student the parent borrower obtained a Direct PLUS Loan or Federal PLUS Loan for.

Program of study means the instructional program leading to a degree or certificate you (or the student) were enrolled in.

School means the school's main campus, or any location or branch of the main campus.

A teach-out agreement is a written agreement between schools that is approved by the school's accrediting agency and, if applicable, the school's state authorizing agency that provides for the equitable treatment of students and a reasonable opportunity for students to complete their program of study if a school ceases to operate before all students have completed their program of study.

Third party refers to any entity that may provide reimbursement for a refund owed by the school, such as a state or other entity offering a tuition recovery program.

SECTION 6: TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR LOAN DISCHARGE BASED ON SCHOOL CLOSURE

Only loans made on or after January 1, 1986, are eligible for this type of discharge.

You are eligible for loan discharge based on school closure only if the location or campus that you (or the student) were attending closed. If you (or the student) were taking distance education classes, you are eligible for discharge only if the main campus of the school closed.

To be eligible for this type of discharge, you (or the student) must have (1) been enrolled at the school or on an approved leave of absence on the date that the school closed or (2) withdrawn from the school not more than 180 days before it closed, or (3) If you accepted, but did not complete, a teach-out agreement or the continuation of your program of study at a different location or branch of the closed school.

You may automatically be eligible for this type of discharge without the need for an application one year after the date of the school's closure if the Department determines you are eligible for this discharge based on information available.

If you accepted, but did not complete, a teach-out agreement or the continuation of your program of study at a different location or branch of the closed school, this discharge may be granted without application one year after your last date of enrollment in the teach-out agreement or continuation of your program of study.

SECTION 6: TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR LOAN DISCHARGE BASED ON SCHOOL CLOSURE (Continued)

If you are denied a closed school discharge for all or some of your loans from your school because your school reported that you completed a program of study with a credential level less than the credential level you were pursuing. You may become eligible for this type of discharge if you provide evidence that the program reported by the school was for a credential level that is lesser than the credential level you were enrolled in.

If you (or the student) withdrew more than 180 days before the school closed, you may be eligible for discharge if the Department determines that exceptional circumstances related to the school's closing justify an extension of this 180-day period

Examples of exceptional circumstances include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The revocation or withdrawal by an accrediting agency of the school's institutional accreditation
- The school being or having been placed on probation or issued a show-cause order, or placed on an equivalent accreditation status, by its accrediting agency for failing to meet one or more of the agency's standards
- The revocation or withdrawal by the state authorization or licensing authority to operate or to award academic credentials in the state
- The termination by the Department of the school's participation in a Title IV, HEA program
- A finding by a state or federal government agency that the school violated state or federal law related to education or services to students
- A state or federal court judgment that a school violated state or federal law related to education or services to students
- The teach-out of the student's educational program exceeding the 180-day look-back period for a closed school discharge
- The school responsible for the teach-out of the student's educational program failing to perform the material terms of the teach-out plan or agreement, such that the student does not have a reasonable opportunity to complete his or her program of study
- The school's discontinuation of a significant share of its academic programs
- The permanent closure of all or most of the school's in-person locations while maintaining online programs
- The school's placement on the heightened cash monitoring payment method as defined in § 668.162(d)(2)

By signing this application, you are agreeing to provide, upon request, testimony, a sworn statement, or other documentation reasonably available to you that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Department or its designee that you meet the qualifications for loan discharge, or that supports any statement you made on this application or in any accompanying documents.

By signing this application, you are agreeing to cooperate with the Department or the Department's designee in any enforcement action related to this application.

Your application may be denied or your discharge may be revoked if you fail to provide testimony, a sworn statement, or documentation upon request, or if you provide testimony, a sworn statement, or documentation that does not support the material representations you made on this application or in any accompanying documents.

SECTION 8: IMORTANT NOTICES

Privacy Act Notice. The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a) requires that the following notice be provided to you:

The authorities for collecting the requested information from and about you are §421 et seq., §451 et seq., and §461 et seq. of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1071 et seq., 20 U.S.C. 1087a et seq., and 20 U.S.C. 1087aa et seq.), and the authorities for collecting and using your Social Security Number (SSN) are §§428B(f) and 484(a)(4) of the HEA (20 U.S.C. 1078-2(f) and 1091(a)(4)) and 31 U.S.C. 7701(b). Participating in the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program, the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program, or the Federal Perkins Loan (Perkins Loan) Program and giving us your SSN are voluntary, but you must provide the requested information, including your SSN, to participate.

The principal purposes for collecting the information on this form, including your SSN, are to verify your identity, to determine your eligibility to receive a loan or a benefit on a loan (such as a deferment, forbearance, discharge, or forgiveness) under the FFEL Program, Direct Loan Program, and/or Perkins Loans to permit the servicing of your loans, and, if it becomes necessary, to locate you and to collect and report on your loans if your loans become delinquent or default. We also use your SSN as an account identifier and to permit you to access your account information electronically.

The information in your file may be disclosed, on a case-by-case basis or under a computer matching program, to third parties as authorized under routine uses in the appropriate systems of records notices. The routine uses of this information include, but are not limited to, its disclosure to federal, state, or local agencies, to private parties such as relatives, present and former employers, business and personal associates, to consumer reporting agencies, to financial and educational institutions, and to guaranty agencies in order to verify your identity, to determine your eligibility to receive a loan or a benefit on a loan, to permit the servicing or collection of your loans, to enforce the terms of the loans, to investigate possible fraud and to verify compliance with federal student financial aid program regulations, or to locate you if you become delinquent in your loan payments or if you default. To provide default rate calculations, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to state agencies. To provide financial aid history information, disclosures may be made to educational institutions.

To assist program administrators with tracking refunds and cancellations, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to federal or state agencies. To provide a standardized method for educational institutions to efficiently submit student enrollment statuses, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies or to financial and educational institutions. To counsel you in repayment efforts, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to federal, state, or local agencies.

In the event of litigation, we may send records to the Department of Justice, a court, adjudicative body, counsel, party, or witness if the disclosure is relevant and necessary to the litigation. If this information, either alone or with other information, indicates a potential violation of law, we may send it to the appropriate authority for action. We may send information to members of Congress if you ask them to help you with federal student aid questions. In circumstances involving employment complaints, grievances, or disciplinary actions, we may disclose relevant records to adjudicate or investigate the issues. If provided for by a collective bargaining agreement, we may disclose records to a labor organization recognized under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 71. Disclosures may be made to our contractors for the purpose of performing any programmatic function that requires disclosure of records. Before making any such disclosure, we will require the contractor to maintain Privacy Act safeguards. Disclosures may also be made to qualified researchers under Privacy Act safeguards.

Paperwork Reduction Notice. According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1845-0058. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the information collection. The obligation to respond to this collection is required to obtain or retain a benefit (34 CFR 674.33(9)(4), 682.402(d)(3), or 685.214(c)). If you have comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, contact your loan holder directly.
